Mrs. Redmond's Class

October 7, 2011

Dear Parents,

We are starting our community helper theme next week in social studies. We will begin Tuesday with a visit from the Stillwater fire department. The firefighters will talk about fire safety and show us what they wear when they are fighting fires. If any parents are interested in sharing what you do as a career, in the home or out of your home, we would love a visit. Send me an email and we will be able to arrange a time.

Thank you Mrs. Gross for supplying our applesauce ingredients for our cooking project this Friday. Thank you Mrs. Eckerman for the tea we enjoyed at our Teddy Bear Tea Party last Friday. Finally, thank you Mrs. Murphy and Mrs. Mikkelson for chaperoning our field trip to Aamodts. Our classroom is a better place to be because of the amazing parents who give so generously of their time!

God's blessings to you,
Mrs. Redmond
